

The FCC should not implement any proposal(s) that would Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Thanks to our new law, we can enjoy our supper hour without interruptions by someone trying to sell us something we don't need or want. Thank you, Attorney General Stephen Carter, for your much-needed attention to this matter.